

J 16th Annual | 3.9.19 JAMBALAYA Writers' Conference

An event for writers and readers

The Friends of the Terrebonne Parish Public Library announce the 16th annual Jambalaya Writers' Conference, to be held on March 9, 2019. Writers from various literary backgrounds are scheduled to appear, including New York Times and USA Today romance writer Carolyn Brown, conference favorites David Middleton, Johnnie Bernhard, and Alys Arden, horror aficionado Dacre Stoker, WWL-TV news anchor Sheba Turk, suspense novelist Erica Spindler, and more. JWC promotes art within the community, enriches creativity, and offers guidance to writers of all skill levels. Readers are also encouraged to attend. Mingle with some of your favorite authors, learn about the writing craft, and more at JWC 2019!

Keynote Presenter
New York Times, USA Bestseller
Beatriz Williams

Beatriz Williams is the New York Times, USA Today, and internationally bestselling author of The Summer Wives, The Secret Life of Violet Grant, A Hundred Summers, A Certain Age, and several other works of historical fiction. A graduate of Stanford University Beatriz worked as a communications and corporate strategy consultant in New York and London before she turned her attention to writing novels. Her work combines her passion for history and her obsessive devotion to voice and characterization.
