

CONTACT INFORMATION:

Friends of the Chauvin Sculpture Garden

Dr. Gary LeFleur

(985) 594 - 2546

gary.lafleur@nicholls.edu

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Friends of the Chauvin Sculpture Garden Presents Chauvin Folk Art Festival to coincide with the Chauvin Blessing of the Fleet

[Chauvin, LA] – The Friends of the Chauvin Sculpture Garden will present Chauvin Folk Art Festival, taking place at the Chauvin Sculpture Garden + Nicholls State University Art Studio, 5337 Bayouside Drive Chauvin, Louisiana 70344 on Sunday, April 7, 2019 from 10 am – 4 pm and featuring music by Waylon Thibodeaux and Nonc Nu and the Wild Matous.

The Friends of the Chauvin Sculpture Garden is proud to bring Chauvin Folk Art Festival to Chauvin, LA on the banks of Bayou Petit Caillou. Chauvin Folk Art Festival is a great place to view the boat parade and meet local artist.

Bring your family and friends.

Gray LeFleur, president of the Friends of the Chauvin Sculpture Garden, says, “the garden has become a favorite place for visitors hoping to witness the beauty and culture of the tractional bayou towns of coastal Louisiana.”

The mission of the Chauvin Sculpture Garden + Nicholls State University Art Studio is to educate the public on the value of Folk Art and its importance in the world of visual arts. The Nicholls State University Art Studio preserves and protects the creative works of Kenny Hill and displays the work of contemporary artists in the 1000 square foot exhibition space.

###