

PRESS RELEASE

On February 6, 2019, Claude Boudreau of “Les Voyages Disporacadie” recently visited the Acadia Deportation Monument at the Terrebonne Waterlife Museum, bringing with him a group of Acadian Descendants from New Brunswick Canada. The Acadian group was greeted by Roger Bourgeois (third from right) & led on a group tour of the Waterlife Museum.

The Acadian Deportation monument located outside of the Terrebonne Waterlife Museum is one of 37 monuments worldwide. We are very fortunate to have one here in Houma.
