Partial Boil Water Lifting

With the knowledge and approval of the Louisiana Department of Health the Boil Water Advisory issued on August 30, 2021, is lifted for the following areas of Terrebonne Parish on the east/south side of the Intracoastal Waterway including the remaining area along both Hwy315 and Brady Road to the end in Bayou Dularge. The remaining length of Hwy 57, Grand Caillou Road, La3011 Shrimpers Row, PR61, and Four Point Road, PR 67. All our Houma Water Treatment System, PWS1109001, is off the Boil Water Advisory.

Please click on the link <http://tpcw.org/page.php?d=about-us&p=water-map>, to visit our interactive map that will show the affected areas with the BWA lifted as well as other beneficial information. This partial BWA lifting will affect 2214 customers which were represented by 31 Bacteriological Samples all of which showed no harmful bacteria and proving that the water is safe for human consumption.
